

Hello hello! Welcome all! This isn't exactly a story; rather, it is a list of stories I plan to do in the future. As a person who has never really gotten into hobbies and all that, I find it surprising that I was able to keep this one for such a long time, and I hope to continue doing so.

Now, I appreciate all the people who helped me grow as a writer and all those who have supported me, so I plan to do something special for halloween, it is my favorite month of the year after all. And that special thing is a list of prompts I hope to do. The list is ongoing so feel free to add on any of your own ideas in the comments or via notes.

Let's start with the first three, these are all going to be OCs I hope to draw by the time I post the stories. Firstly, a female OC by the name of Velvet, her whole gist will be around killing characters mercilessly and in mass.

Second, an OC I believe I will have a much better time drawing rather than writing about, I don't have a name for him/her currently. However, they will be a Jiangshi, in the simplest terms: a chinese zombie.

And, lastly, one I've been working on for a long, long, long time. I'm not too sure if I have the courage to post the story at all. I'll have to cross that road when I get there I guess. Basically, it's an innkeeper of the afterlife by the name of Fukō, despite their appearance they will be "human".

Now, onto the more simple prompts I hope to get through. These will all be the sfw, non kink related ones:

- Detective mystery horror
- Scientific witchery
- Seaside violinist employed by a witch
- Something with Yue storyline if not a revamp of the first few stories.
- Something to do with Warhammer (I'm not too sure about this one, I liked playing Vermintide but that's all I know about warhammer lore...)
- A person who is much more sinister than they let off.
- Something cute to do with vampires
- An old man who appraises trinkets and takes in abandoned children/ hurt individuals.
- A rapper and Robot meeting eye-to-eye while searching for a being who gives out wishes.

The next set of prompts will be mostly nsfw/ kinky stories I want to do at some point:

- Sleepy/ unaware paw play with a tiny
- "Would you love me if I were a worm?"
- Thieves turned tiny or perhaps transformed into various objects
- Writing about a recent Character.AI RP.
- Possibly a creation of my own Character.AI character. (Could be sfw, I'm not too sure yet)

- Another story about the characters of Blazblue, likely just Jubei again saying I like him far too much to stop.
- Prophunt, transforming into various objects without being noticed.
- An underappreciated Pokémon getting their chance at dynamax fun.

All of these prompts are not set in stone, I may change some in the future or throw away some stories. Nonetheless, I hope to get (most) of these done. Oh, and I definitely wouldn't mind some recommended prompts along with mine (sfw and nsfw.) I am so very appreciative of the people who have helped me along my way to growing. Despite how slowly said growth is, I want to at least try. No more running, even if I must bash my head in to learn, I will do so with a stupid smile plastered on my face. It goes without saying that almost all these prompts can be taken and used by other people, ideas are meant to be shared rather than hidden to one's self. I hope you all have a wonderful day. Because, to me, there is only one word to describe how I feel currently. And it just so happens that one of my favorite hip-hop artists just made a whole album under the same word: bliss.
