*Note from Author: I'd advise to read previous part(s) first to fully understand what's going on in the story. *This story turned out longer than expected, and is written in the way that it's hard to divide into parts; It's 15668 words long, so be sure to have quite a bit of time, or take notes on moments you've already read. The story you're about to read contains scenes of minors under light bondage and being tickled, so if this concept makes you uncomfortable, or is illegal where you live, then read no further. The story absolutely DOES NOT contain any sex related content or nudity whatsoever, so if you are looking for that you'll have to look elsewhere, and if it includes kids, then you should go seek psychologist's help instead. Also, some parts of the story might look kind of fetish related, but I assure you there's no fetishes related to this story, nor do any characters have any, and besides, Azzy, Chara and MK are only very young kids, and it would be plain wrong (imo) to include them in such activities. This story is based around UNDERTALE owned by Toby Fox and is entirely fictional, so any similarity between characters of this story and actual people are coincidental. It's also recommended to play or watch a playthrough of that game to fully understand the stories. If you have any questions about this and the upcoming stories don't fear to ask in the comments or notes and I'll try to answer them. I'm also experimenting with the narrative a bit, so this story might turn out more descriptive than the others, and I'd like to have a little bit of feedback from you all on whether or not this type of mixed narrative fits well with you or if I should tune it down a little and make the characters explain some of the story/surroundings. Playfultale: A Trail Through the Past

Chapter 2: Exploration full of laughter, part 3.

Asgore and Toriel embraced their children and started comforting them. Asgore was comforting Asriel, and Toriel was comforting Chara. The kids were calming down slowly, as their parents hugged them tightly and patted their backs lightly. It took five minutes for Chara and Asriel to fully calm down and, though still in quite a bit of shock, wiggle free out of Asgore and Toriel's hugs, and then proceeded to give everyone hugs, as well as thanking them.

Asriel & Chara: Thank you all so much!

Asgore, Toriel, Sans, Papyrus, Gaster, Alphys, Undyne: All at the same time We're happy to see you so happy, kiddos/children/punks!

MK: looks around the place Yo Az, wasn't that place our secret hideout?

Chara: Wait, your what now? Have you forgotten to tell me about something, Fluffy? she asked both MK and Asriel, smiling widely.

Asriel and MK: They look at each other, and turn back towards Chara smiling sheepishly Um... we were going to show you this after our exploration.

Asriel: I was actually thinking of letting you take revenge on me there, but apparently everyone had similar plans, and decided to upgrade it! (I still don't know how they got to know we had a secret hideout in the first place!) He explained, and thought to himself.

Gaster: Well, aren't you three curious as to what we managed to do with this place? he asked the kids

The kids: excitedly Of course we are!

After that, all of them started showing the kids around the revamped “hideout”. The ground floor consisted of bathrooms, a huge padded (and soundproof) play area and special, magic-proof training room. Up the stairs was another big play area, but aside that there were wardrobes and a big bedroom with many foldable beds. Overall, this place was rebuilt for the purpose of giving the kids a safe and big place to play and goof around in, and stay overnight for a bit. Toriel and Asgore had just one more thing to do in order to make the place completed, and that was to transform a spare room into a self-serving kitchen, where the kids could get food for themselves, made by machines invented by Alphys. The kids were awed with how big this place was, and by the fact that they could use it anytime and for however long and whatever they wanted. After they showed the kids where everything was, they stepped back into the main play area on the ground floor. Toriel lit 8 candles on the birthday cake she prepared earlier, and set it on a trolley-cart, which she reeled in.

Toriel: Now, Chara and Asriel, make a wish for yourselves and blow out the candles.

Chara & Azzy: they winked at one another and blew the candles out, smiling in the process

After the candles have been blown out, Toriel and Asgore cut the cake into equal pieces and proceeded to give them to the others, and when they finished doing so they all sat down on the padded floor to eat. MK was having a bit of trouble due to him not having arms, so Chara started feeding him, which made everyone giggle at the cute scene, and make Chara and MK blush heavily.

MK: whispers to Chara after she finished feeding him his slice of cake. You know I could have eaten it by myself? But thanks either way!

Chara: Oh, come on, you’d have had the cake all over your face! She said, giggling and putting a bit of whipped cream onto his nose, which again made everyone giggle at their cuteness.

Azzy: Hehe, you two sure took a liking to one another, didn’t you? he said teasingly

Chara & MK: while blushing a bit Well... um... maybe?

Chara: now with a big grin on her face Oh, but it’s not like you aren’t the cutest, most cuddly, fluffball in the whole world, Azzy! she exclaimed, booping Asriel’s snoot and putting a bit of whipped cream onto it too.

Azzy: He blushed heavily and then hastily wiped the cream off his nose, before letting out a puppy-sneeze. Oh, you’re so in for it now, sister! He said, and leaped towards her in an attempt of tackling and pinning her down, but he found himself floating in the air...*

Sans: Hehehe! Not so fast kiddo. Have you forgotten about what we were supposed to do here? he said, grinning widely at the floating goat-kid.

Azzy: getting progressively more and more nervous. No, Sans, i haven’t forgotten about... wait... oh. OH. OH NO, Sans! You’re not telling me...

Gaster: pops up out of nowhere in front of the boy The time has come!

Now, everyone in the room gathered closer, smiling widely at Asriel, which creeped him out a bit, but he knew they were his friends and that they wouldn’t hurt him. Besides, his parents were there too. But that didn’t help him in this case, because he knew that one of his wishes was about to come true.

He was about to get tickled by all of his friends and family members at once! But wait... Wasn't he supposed to be tickled by Chara while he was bound down? Well, the answer is yes, and he will be, but later in the day!

Sans let go of him and the poor boy stood there, looking around for a way to run away from them all, but he could find none.

Chara: comes up to him and hugs him, whispering Hey Azzy, why has everyone gathered around you?

Azzy: whispers back Well, you see, I have once said that I'd like to be tickled by all of my friends and family at once, but I didn't expect it would be on this very day!

Chara: looks at him surprised, but cannot stop a grin from coming up on her face Oh! That makes sense! she turned to look at Toriel and Asgore, and they winked at her, giving her an OK to start So you wouldn't mind if I suddenly did this!

With that said, she started tickling her brother's ribs and tummy while still hugging them, which led to Asriel letting out a surprised bleat and start laughing hysterically!

Azzy: starts laughing maniacally BAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAH!!!!
CHAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAH!!!!
AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAHARA!!!!
STAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAH!!!!
AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAHAP!!!!

Undyne: Huhuhuhuhu! Way to go, punk! Get him good!

The monsters were cheering Chara on for the entirety of her ticklish assault on Azzy. The mischievous 8-year-old tickled her brother for 5 whole minutes, making him fall down to his knees halfway through. She made sure to leave no spot on his upper body untickled, but focused mainly on his belly, armpits and ribs. The poor fluffball laughed his head off throughout the entire thing, but that was just the beginning. After another minute, Sans stopped Chara and lifted Azzy up into the air.

Sans: Well, don't you think we should find a bit better place for this thing, kid? he asked, grinning sinisterly, but still warmly at him.

Azzy: Heeheehee! Whahahahat do youhuhuhu mehehehehean? Hahahahaha! he asked through his giggles, still recovering from his sister tickling him.

What Sans meant was that there was one more room they didn't show the kids yet, but they had a reason for it. The room was soundproofed, and had a large, padded table in the middle of it with softrope straps on the top and bottom of it. Sans and Gaster have set it up for the sole purpose of tickling Azzy and Chara into oblivion today! Chara doesn't know about it yet, but all of them decided to strengthen their bonds with her by doing exactly the same thing they are gonna do to Azzy. At first they didn't want to tie the kids down in the way they're gonna do, but knowing how much of a wiggle worm Asriel is, and expecting Chara to be almost the same, they decided to do it, and either way, they are friends and family of the kids, and they are sure the kids won't mind them tying them down to have some fun. Chara does not know Undyne, Alphys or Papyrus as well as Asriel does, but she knows that she can trust them, though she is sceptical about Undyne, because Asriel told her about her temper and how she might be a bit too fierce whenever doing anything, but he also told her that he suspects her having a very soft and gentle spot for kids and cute things in her SOUL, Gaster: looks towards Chara and MK and chuckles loudly Good job, kids! You got us all off-guard! Now, join in everyone! he said loudly and started tickling the little princes' belly and belly button with both of his skeletal hands.

What had happened next caused Asriel to release a very high pitched bleat and break down into very precious, frantic, boisterous and hypnotically adorable, yet heavy laughter. Toriel and Asgore tickled their son's hyper-sensitive armpits and ears with their fingers and claws, making sure not to hurt him, Undyne and Alphys squeezed his sides with one hand and drummed and skittered their other hands wildly on his ribs. Sans and Papyrus got to work on kneading Azzy's thighs with one hand and with their other hands they pinched and scribbled lightly on his hips and hipbones. Chara was using both of her hands to tickle her brother's foot, with one hand poking, prodding, slithering, scribbling and spidering all over Asriel's furry sole and the other hand playing, scribbling and digging into or in between his toes and balls of his foot. MK on the other hand turned around and was skillfully slithering his tail all over Asriel's other foot and digging it's tip lightly and drilling into the bases of his toes, or in between the toes. With all of those sensations overpowering the young goat-boy's body he struggled mightily at first, then just laid there and took it all in, shivering and trembling like a temmie! He laughed his head off and bleated precious, making everyone giggle and smile at his cute reactions.

His frantic and adorable laughter was so loud, that you could have probably heard it through all the soundproofing the room had, but due to the whole building being additionally sound-proofed you could not hear it outside. Gaster summoned some ghostly hands to plug everyone's ears to protect their hearing! Everyone was smiling from hearing and watching the little prince of The Underground laughing preciously. They didn't even notice how fast the time went by, and it appeared to be too soon to switch, but they all did as they promised Asriel, and now Chara took place at her brothers left foot, Sans stepped in to his right foot, Undyne stepped down to his right thigh, Asgore stepped down to his son's right side, Toriel took place where Asgore had been before (Asriel's right shoulder), Alphys stepped up to Azzy's left shoulder, Gaster took his place by the boy's left side, Papyrus prepared to tickle his belly and MK stepped up to Azzy's left thigh. Gaster lifted MK up a bit with his telekinesis, making it easier for the armless reptilian boy to use his toes and tail to tickle Asriel. They let Asriel catch his breath for a bit more, and started the cycle again. They went hard at first, but eased up in the middle, in order to not tire the frantically, boisterously, maniacally and adorably laughing goat-kid out. The 'cycle of tickles' as Sans called it in some point of time during the ordeal continued for an entire hour, and what was left of the poor Asriel after that was a giggly ball of fluff. But they all knew it wasn't over just yet, Azzy included. The adorable "kid" knew exactly what was going to happen after a 10 minute break! He was going to get tickled again, but this time unbound and by two people at once, unlike all 9 of them at once like it was happening for the previous hour. Gaster released him out of the table, and put him gently on the floor, and Asgore and Toriel started petting and rubbing him affectionately, which made everyone let out "D-aawwww"s and making Undyne extremely flustered, making it hard for her to keep her "tough warrior" act up and keep her cute side out of everyone's view. Asriel got so relaxed he actually fell asleep in his parents' holds, and for a while everyone wondered if they should wake him up or not. They let Toriel and Asgore decide, and they thought about it for a minute.

Asgore: Gaster, dear friend, how long has the 'cycle of tickles' lasted? he asked the royal scientist, keeping his voice low as to not wake his son up.

Gaster: It went on for almost an hour, your majesty. he replied respectfully

Asgore: Thank you, but call me “your majesty” again and I’ll make all the royal guards and everyone in the kingdom try and tickle you! he replied, grinning.

Gaster: Oh, I'd love to see them try, old friend! he replied, chuckling, but unknowingly not even daring to try and call Asgore "your majesty".

Toriel and Asgore considered waking their son for a couple of minutes, and decided to complete his ordeal now, so that he could rest peacefully for the next while. They nodded at each other and smiled at everyone, whispering “Let’s do it, so he’s over with this craziness”, and shifted their positions. Asgore took Asriel’s wrists and seized them up above his head with one of his massive hands, and Toriel wrapped her left arm around his ankles, and on the count of three they started tickling him again, with Asgore blowing raspberries on his belly and Toriel scribbling her fingers wildly all around his soles. The poor boy shrieked out with laughter and started writhing around, bleating maniacally, yet very adorably at the same time.

Toriel: Heeheehee! Wakey-wakey, my precious child! The tickle monsters are hungry and want to feast on you for a while, will you let them do so? she asked Asriel politely, without stopping her assault.

Asgore: Hohoho! I'm sure you will let me eat this precious little ticklish belly up! He teased him, blowing a very long and ticklish raspberry over his son's belly button.

Azzy: BAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAH!!!!!!
NAAH AHAA!!!!!! STAHAP!!!!!! he called out frantically, not really meaning what he said, and very happy that his parents decided to continue making his wish come true

This time the goat-kid wasn't laughing as hard as he was a couple of minutes before, but his laughter was as adorable as it always was and as it always will be. The boss monsters did their job for exactly two minutes and stepped away, and Chara and MK went up to Asriel. MK wrapped his tail around his friend's ankles and sat beside his legs, using his feet and toes to dig into and poke around his belly, making him laugh again, but due to Azzy's soft and extremely tickly fur he disintegrated himself into a giggling fit. Chara grabbed at her brother's innermost toes with one of her hands and she pulled them back, right before starting to poke and prod around his feet, focusing underneath and in between his toes and the balls of his feet. This caused Asriel to wiggle and flop around a lot, and MK shifted his position onto Asriel's knees, and made use of both his feet, and his giggles jumped up to full on laughter. Everyone in the room thought that this scene was extremely adorable, and indeed it was, because there were two cute kids making each other laugh maniacally. The other two minutes passed very quickly again, and the kids stepped away, making room for Undyne and Alphys, and the girls started doing their thing.

Asriel laid on the padded floor reduced to a frantically giggling mess of a ticklish fluffball he is. The skelebros, who have been tickling him now stepped away and the last tickler gave Asriel a much deserved break. The boy calmed down in another two minutes, and just laid there until...

Azzy: Heeheehee!! That was FUN! Thank you yawn all very much! he said as he tried to et up, but just as he sit up, he felt that he couldn't move a single bit of his body. Wait, what's going on?

Gaster: Hahaha! Did you really think it was over, young prince? He exclaimed, sitting down besides Asriel.

Azzy: his eyes are as wide as saucers Wait, Gaster, you haven't tickled me yet? he asked, confused.

Gaster: No I have not... yet! he explained excitedly, pinning the goat-kid's arms above his head and overall restraining him with his telekinesis, rendering him unable to move even a millimetre! But that's going to change in a minute, for I will tickle you for the next two minutes with all I have in stock!

Asriel gasped after hearing that, and started giggling nervously all the time, and squeaking every time Gaster teased him by wiggling his fingers close to the boy's belly or armpits. The mischievous skeleton scientist started a countdown, and at the end he summoned 10 ghostly hands, 2 for his armpits, 2 for the ribs, 2 for the sides and hips, 2 for thighs and knees and 2 for the boy's feet, and they started tickling their respected spots, while Gaster used his own hands to tickle Azzy's belly and belly button. The tickly sensations shot through the poor kid like electric shock, and he started laughing hysterically, but oh so cutely! He also bleated loudly, and the cute sound of it made everyone smile. HIs laughter was boisterous, maniacal and extremely addictive. Asriel was also having the time of his life, as he loved every second of the two minutes Gaster tickled him, reducing the boy to an adorable giggling white mush of ticklish nerves that laid limply on the padded floor. Chara kneeled next to him and hugged her brother, and he returned the hug, resting his head on her shoulder and falling fast asleep like that, making everyone release a "D-aaawwww~" sound again. Toriel gently picked him up and took him upstairs, putting him on the bed and tucking him in so that he could rest. She smiled at her cute son stirring a bit in an attempt to find a comfortable position to sleep in. Toriel came downstairs, and made eye contact with Asgore and Gaster, smiling mischievously. They all knew they had 2 more ticklish kids to put to sleep, and they were sure going to do it in a fun way.

Chara & MK: That was crazy! they exclaimed in a half whisper Sans: Heh, sure it was! And there's no need to whisper, the whole place is soundproofed, remember?

Chara: Oh, yeah, hehe, forgot about that.

MK: So, what's going to happen next? he asked innocently

Everyone started grinning, turning their attention back to the kids.

Asgore: Well, we still have two very ticklish little children and 7 tickle monsters out to feast! he teased them, watching their expressions shift from neutral to shocked and nervous.

Chara: Uh... RUN! she shouted out to MK, and stormed out of the room out to the main play area.

[illegible]

The kiddos tried speaking, but the only things that came out of their mouths were pure gibberish. The Monsters continued “torturing” the kids for about five minutes, and after the time was up they gave them a break.

Toriel: Heeheehee! Oh, you two are just so adorable laughing and giggling like that~! she teased them, unintentionally making MK blush

[illegible]

Gaster: Oh, the fun has just started! And this was just a warm-up! The next couple of minutes are going to be a bit more intense!

With that said, he unsummoned the eight hands he used to tickle them and in their place the scientist skeleton summoned two basketball-sized Gaster Blasters, shocking everyone in the process.

Sans: Hey dad, are you actually serious with the blasters? he asked his father curiously

Gaster: Why, yes, indeed I am! he replied, shooting a playful and in the same time mischievous smile towards Chara and MK.

MK: his eyes widened in pure shock Are those your infamous 'Tickle Blasters'? Az has told me about them once, but I thought he was in on something you were planning, Gaster!

Chara: What on the everloving face of the Earth are you all talking about?! she exclaimed rather loudly, catching everyone off guard.

The Monsters and MK all laughed after awkward 10 seconds of silence, because they forgot that Chara was new to overall magic and abilities. Sans explained to her that the Monsters can control whatever type of magic they are born with, and make it not lethal or modify its properties. Gaster then decided it would be best for him to show the girl what the blasters were capable of delivering in form of tickles, and he made the blasters he summoned suddenly start shooting continuous streams of tickle-beams at her and MK's bellies, catching the kids completely off-guard and sending them into a fit of cataclysmic, yet non-strained laughter. The rest of the Monsters just sat there and watched the scene before their eyes, letting Gaster have some fun with the ticklish duo. He manipulated the blasters to move around the kids' bodies and Chara noticed that the beams ignored any clothing she had on, and thus making her shriek with maniacal laughter whenever the blasters shot at her ribs or thighs and knees. MK was in similar position as his friend was, and the kids continued laughing their heads off for the next five minutes, until Chara could take no more.

Chara: starts to struggle mightily all the while laughing hysterically to no end.

Gaster: stops the torture, and the kids looked totally worn off Okay, you two have probably had enough tickles for now...

The kids slept for good four hours and when Chara woke up first (due to having to go to the toilet) it was already early evening. She blushed a bit when she found she was snuggling with Asriel again, and smiled when she saw that now Asriel had turned onto his side and had his arms wrapped around MK's shirtless upper body, and due to the goat-kid's tickly fur, the young lizard monster was giggling in his sleep. She let them be for now and took a look around the place alone. The first thing she noticed was that they were alone in the building, but she recalled that the thing was built for them to have discreet fun in the first place. She went down to the kitchen place and took a bit of the leftover birthday cake for a snack and then headed back to the stairs, and it was then she noticed that the stock-room was left open. She went into it and underneath the stocks themselves she found a box and a note: "hope you crazy kids will have fun with those tickle tools we collected for you. Just remember not to overdo things. Sans & co." She smiled and took the box out, and she found numerous types of brushes, feathers, paintbrushes, combs, pipe cleaners and a pair of fluffy gloves. There was also quite a decent length of softrope divided into usable pieces. She came up with a crazy idea. She took the box with herself upstairs and her smile grew when she saw MK and Asriel still cuddling together. She grabbed four medium pieces of softrope and three pieces of soft string, and an additional long piece of softrope and crawled onto the bed. She then proceeded to tie the boys' ankles together, and then connected the bindings to themselves, using two lengths of the rope, and the boys' feet were bound in such way that their innermost toes almost touched! she then grabbed the soft string and carefully bound their toes together, again binding MK and Asriel's toes together. Now the mischievous girl moved up to the boys' upper bodies and carefully took Azzy's T-shirt off, and being very careful not to wake them up, she used the long rope to slowly tie the boys together at chest height, and after doing a few turns she grabbed Asriel's wrists and used the excess of the rope to tie them behind her brother's back. She got off the bed and admired her handiwork, giggling to herself a little. She then grabbed some feathers from the box, two feather dusters, two very soft pipe cleaners and two brushes with medium-stiff bristles, and two brushes with very soft bristles. She also grabbed four toothbrushes. She laid the tools in front of MK and Asriel's feet, and started her playful wake-up procedure.

Azzy: BAAAAAAAAAH! WHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAT IHIIHIIHIS GOHOHOHOHOHOING
OHOHOHOHON?!!! I CAHAHAHAHAN'T MOOHOHOHOHOVE!!! he laughed out, desperately trying to wiggle sway, unintentionally brushing his soft fur over MK's belly and tickling him in the process

Chara: Yeah, I haven't... But I'm looking forward to that! she exclaimed excitedly Now, you two adorable boys, laugh for me! she said and plunged her hands down onto the boys' bellies, gliding and wiggling her left gloved hand fingers all over MK's exposed belly, occasionally going deeper to torment his belly button, and she squeezed, poked and prodded Asriel's exposed belly with her right hand, occasionally doing the same thing she did to MK.

Chara tickled MK's tail for good five minutes and the boy couldn't do a thing about it! He was laughing maniacally and whenever he tried talking all that left his mouth was incoherent gibberish! When Chara was done, she took off the gloves and let MK rest for ten minutes, for now both boys will be under attack, but with major concentration on one fluffy, extremely cute and deathly ticklish boy! Or at least it seems that way... MK was gulping in air just after Chara finished and he took 2 minutes to calm down fully. While both boys rested, Chara undid the binding that held the boys together by their chests and wrestled Asriel's arms up above his head, and bound them down to the bed frame. Asriel's eyes went wide, for now his sister had full access to two most ticklish spots on his upper body, and she was going to focus solely on him!

And just as she thought this was it, MK started nibbling lightly on Asriel's upper ribs, and hoooo boy, did that make Asriel's laughter scale up a notch! Chara noticed that the boy had sucked his lips in a bit in order to prevent any saliva from getting onto Asriel's body or fur. He nibbled as he caught his breath and as soon as he was done he was blasting Asriel's armpits with raspberries again! Asriel was laughing very hysterically now, but his laughter wasn't strained at all, in fact quite the opposite, it was energetic and joyful! Chara now started doing the same thing as MK was doing, and Azzy lost it!

He stopped all his struggling and threw his head back, and just laughed and laughed to no end. The duo did this for five minutes and after this time was up Chara and MK gave Asriel a break. Chara then told MK that she would like to have a solo turn on Azzy, and he backed away, giggling. Asriel in the meantime was panting heavily.

Azzy: Hahahahahahahahaha! huff Juhuhuhuhust pleahahahahahahahase, huff nohohohohohoho mohohohohore nihihihihihihihihihihibbling! puff Chara: Ok, no problem! You didn't ever have that done by two people at the same time, did you?

she assured him and asked curiously

Asriel took a bit of time to calm down before answering.

Azzy: No, I didn't, hahahaha! Actually, hehehe, MK was the only one to this point who knew about this technique being so effective on me! Thanks for making her aware of this, you babble-mouth! he shot back at MK without any spite whatsoever

MK: No problem, Az! By the way, Chara, I have an ultra weakness for raspberries and nibbles, but on my feet instead of ribs and armpits! Hehe, now we're even! he replied to his friends

Chara: Good to know MK! But now let's finish this fluff-ball over there off, shall we? she asked rhetorically and started kneading Asriel's sides like dough!

[illegible]

Chara: Not the sides you say? Well then, how about here? she asked her brother teasingly, and latched her hands onto his waist, digging her thumbs into his hips and wiggling them around in quick, circular motions, which proved to be almost as effective as the raspberries and nibbles!

[illegible]

MK: Woah! I've never heard him going that insane! That's quite a nice technique you are using there Chara! he shouted out, being genuinely amazed by how hard and frantic Azzy's laughter is Chara: Wow, that sure is effective on him, I'll have to remember that spot! And thanks MK! she replied, just as amazed as MK is I wonder if something's gonna happen when I also do this...

inhale PFFFFFFFFRRRRRRRRRRRTTTTTTTTTTT!!

What she just did caused Asriel to start bucking heavily, trying desperately to move away from the tickles, and making him shriek like a banshee! You would think that the poor boy was being mercilessly tortured, but if you could take a look at his adorable, little tear-streaked face, you would see a ginormous grin! Asriel was now having the time of his life and after a while his body went limp and the fluffy prince just laid there taking in all the tickles his sister threw at him, and that helped Chara blow raspberries even more frequently, making her brother release excruciatingly adorable laughter between his cute bleats! The girl did this for about five more minutes before launching a double handed tickle-claw attack on her brother's fluffy tummy! His laughter calmed down and lost its volume, but it was still hard and adorable! He tried to wiggle his tummy out from Chara's attack, but he was unable to do so and gave up. Chara ended up tickling him like that for another five minutes and she totaled torturing her brother in 15 minutes. Asriel had become a mess, with his fur in a wacky chaos on his head and his cheeks and ears wet from tears! The still giggling ball of absolutely adorable fluff and ticklish nerves just laid there silently and gulped in air, and Chara disappeared for a little while, and came back with two cups of water. She unties Asriel's hands and handed him one cup, and then helped MK sit upright and helped him drink. Both boys were grateful for the water, and Asriel managed to calm down just as he finished his cup, and laid back down. MK took a little more time to finish his portion of water, but he laid down too after finishing it. MK was well rested by that time, but Asriel was still panting a bit.

Chara smiled at the boys and put her hands on their bellies, making them flinch, but then they suddenly relaxed and Asriel let out a very relaxed sigh, for Chara was now petting their bellies! Wait, MK likes being pet? Oh hell yeah he does, but not as much as Asriel! The boys got so relaxed that they actually fell asleep, and Asriel ended up so relaxed that he started snoring, making Chara giggle, because he was letting out soft, purr like noises out of his slightly open mouth. She continued rubbing their bellies until she was hundred percent sure the boys were asleep, and after about ten minutes of rubbing she stopped and carefully bound Asriel's arms above his head again, as well as tying MK to Asriel's chest, turning her brother to lay on his side. The boys were back at similar position to the one they started in, but now Asriel was a bit more stretched out, which was a part of Chara's plan that she thought of as she was petting the boys. Now, she took the box from the floor and put it on the bed, placing it sideways and grabbed another piece of rope from it and laid down on her back on the boys' legs. She grabbed one more rope and tied the boy's thighs together, further immobilising their legs' movement and being careful not to wake them up she proceeded to tie herself down on her waist level to the boys' knees, being careful not to tighten the rope too much at first.

When she had made 3 turns with the rope, she carefully turned around, facing the boys' feet and tightened the rope a bit, and tied an easy to undo, but very strong knot. Why would she do this to herself? Well, the answer is simple, when she was tickling MK and Azzy's upper bodies, she saw that the boys buckled their legs quite a bit, and she wanted to make them unable to do so while she was "playing with the new toys". She also felt cheeky, and decided to tie herself in a way that let her stay stable, move up and down a little bit, AND make it possible to tickle the boys' sides, ribs, bellies and armpits with her feet, all while being able to clearly see and tickle their feet! When she was ready, she put her biggest toes on the boy's sides and started wiggling them slowly, and she started giggling because Asriel's fur was tickling her toes a bit too. The boys have woken up and started laughing, with MK laughing more because of Asriel's fur gliding all over his bae torso again, and they turned their heads to see what was going on and were surprised to see only Chara's feet were tickling them.

Azzy: AAAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!!! CHAHAHAHAHAHAHARA, WHAHAHAHAHAHAT
AHAHAHAHAHAHARE YOUHUHUHUHU DOOHOHOHOHOING?!!!
HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHE!!! he asked her through his laughter

MK: EEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEK!!!!
 AH
 AHAHAHAHA!!!! WHYHYHYHYHYHYHYHY UHUHUUUHHUUHUUHUSE
 YOHUHUUUUUUUUUUUR FEEHEEHEEHEET OHOHOHOHOHOHON
 OHOHOHOHOHOHOHOHUR SIHIHIHIHIHIHIHIHIIDEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHESES?!!!! he asked her too, but with a little bit more trouble than his friend

Chara giggling from Asriel's fluffy fur gliding over the balls of her left foot Heeheeheehee! Whyhyhyhyhyhy, I'm thihihihihickleeheeheeheeeng youhuhuhuhu twoohooohoo cuhuhuhuhutehehehehehe bohohohohoys!! Ahahahand Ahahahahahazeeheehee's fuhuhuhur ihihihihis thihihihihicklihihihihing myhyhyhyhy foohooohoooot ahahahaha bihihihihit toohooohoo! she replied to both of them through her giggles

Now that she knew they were awake, she stopped tickling them with her feet and reached for some feathers. She grabbed a fistful of very fluffy and light feathers into each one of her hands, and showed them to the boys, who gulped nervously, for now they have seen how she was positioned and thus made aware that they couldn't do anything to stop her (or so it seemed for the time being). She then decided to tease the boys for a little bit, and twiddled just one of the fluffy feathers lightly over the boys' innermost toes in circular motions, and they started giggling immediately. She did this for thirty seconds and then suddenly shot her feet down between the boys, crossing her legs and started tickling MK's belly with her left foot and Azzy's fluffy belly with her right foot, and since she was using both her toes and the balls of her feet, she started laughing lightly due to Asriel's belly fur being extremely soft and fluffy, and thus very tickly. The boys on the other hand exploded with laughter, with MK's being the louder one again (for the same reason as Chara's current laughter), and Chara grabbed all the feathers again, and started gliding the bundles all over the poor boys' feet, making their laughter scale up a bit.

She saw that MK was trying desperately to scrunch down his toes and she focused the feathers right underneath them, going in between them too, which caused the already heavy-laughing boy to shriek like a banshee and laugh even more heavily, while she also noticed that the feathers didn't really have the same effects on Asriel. She continued this onslaught for 5 minutes and gave her ticklees a break, while she also caught her breath from laughing from Asriel's fur tickling her right sole. The break lasted five minutes and Chara decided to step the game up a little and started tickling the boys' feet with her fingers, scratching at their soles with her fingernails lightly while attacking their armpits with light drilling with her toes. She got used to Asriel's fur by now and could focus entirely on her "victims'" ticklish stompers. She found very quickly that the boys were laughing the most whenever she attacked their immobile toes, so she focused there for the most part, scratching away with all of her fingernails on their bases and in between them, which drove MK up the wall. She did this for two minutes and decided to surprise them both, for she suddenly switched to the soft-bristled scrub brushes she prepared, and both MK and Asriel lost it! She scrubbed their heels and arches for the most part, giving the boys' balls of the feet a bit of a break, but after a minute she decided to go full in on the balls of their feet and their toes.

Chara decided to stay silent to tease them, and she went willy-nilly all over their feet with the brushes! She scrubbed at their toes, then jumped suddenly to their heels, then thoroughly scrubbed their arches and then deployed a very fast and ferocious scrubbing on the balls of their feet, and the boys went silent for a bit before regaining their voices again. This went on for seven minutes, and after this she put the brushes down and let the boys get a breather. The poor lads gulped in air, and Chara started to massage their feet, and to her surprise she actually ended up tickling Asriel! She quickly stopped massaging his feet and focused entirely on MK's feet instead, making the young boy relax as he rested. This break lasted for 10 whole minutes and Chara decided to end it suddenly by blowing a raspberry over MK's right foot and then she did the same to his right foot, and then did the same thing to Asriel's feet.

She ended up tickling the boys' feet this way for twenty minutes in total, and when she finished the boys were panting heavily. Asriel pulled himself up lightly into a more comfortable position and while he was doing so, he felt the knot holding his arms above his head under his fingers and smiled to himself. He managed to untie his arms from the bed frame and proceeded to untie his wrists. MK saw this and he smiled to his friend, and both boys nodded to each other. Chara didn't pay much attention now, for she was looking through the "toolbox", and Asriel used this to untie the bond holding him and MK together. The situation was starting to take a dramatic turn now, for Asriel managed to untie himself and MK, but Chara started tickling their feet again, this time using two feather dusters, and the boys had to make sure to stay in their position to not alert Chara.

The boys:

[illegible]

Chara tickled them like that for five minutes and let them rest again, going back to browsing the box of tickle utensils. What the kids didn't know was that Chara had been tickling the boys for over an hour and a half! The boys were getting a bit bored now and decided to initiate their plan. Asriel suddenly grabbed Chara's left ankle and MK latched his tail around Chara's right ankle, and the girl turned around and looked at the boys with wide eyes, clearly shocked that they managed to get out of their bonds. Asriel wiggled his fingers just slightly above her sole teasingly and the girl started giggling nervously, but it was MK who actually started tickling her first! The mischievous boy started playing around with Chara's toes and balls of her feet.

Noooooooooooooooooooooooooooo!!!!

OHOHOHOHOHOHOHOHOHOHOHON THEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEN!!! She laughed out and started tickling the boy's feet chaotically.

With that said a very unusual tickle fight ensued, because all its contestants were tied together and Chara was tickling the boys' feet and the boys started tickling Chara's feet, and all of the kids were soon laughing frantically and maniacally. But Chara was in a major disadvantage, for there was only her against MK and Asriel, and the way that she tied herself to their legs made her own leg movements somewhat restrained, and she couldn't manage enough force to pull her feet out of the boys' grips. Chara was progressively more and more overwhelmed and after five minutes she stopped tickling the boys' feet and lost herself in tickles delivered to her own feet. The boys kept going until the girl was running short on her breaths, and then they stopped.

Azzy: Ok sis, now could you please untie our feet and legs? he asked the now-breathless girl that laid panting on his and MK's legs and while still holding onto her ankle he untied the knot keeping her legs bound at the knees to their legs.

Chara: while still giggling and panting semi-heavily Oh, hahahahahahahahahahaha, doohooohooohoo youhuhuhuhu reahahahahahahahally thiihihihihihihihiink I'm gohohohohohohohohoing toohooohoo do thahahahahahahahat? she replied through her giggling and shot her brother a cheekily-playful look, and started skittering her fingers all over the boys' feet again

Azzy & MK: EEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEK/BAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAH!!!!

 ATTAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHACKS
 THEN!!!! they laughed out and tugged at the girl's ankles mightily, but delicately at the same time as to not hurt her, prying her away from their feet.

The boys then threw the girl off of their legs onto the bed and put their legs over her back, with her legs going in between them. They sat up to the best of their current possibility and bent Chara's legs in the knees, and both of the boys started blowing raspberries on her soles, starting at the heels and ending right underneath her toes, and they hit dead centre jackpot with that, for Chara started laughing and squirming like never before, and when the boys stopped after 2,5 minutes the girl just laid there gulping in air, they waited for a bit for her to get back to her normal self and calm down.

Azzy: So, will you untie our legs now, or will we have to play with your very ticklish feet some more, huh, sis? he asked her, teasingly gliding his finger randomly over the ball of her left foot, making the girl squeak and titter for a bit.

Chara: Okay, I'll untie you now! just please don't do the raspberries again, they are too tickly! she replied with a little bit of panic

The boys rolled themselves over and rested besides Chara, and she did as she said she would do, and untied the boy's legs and feet. She organised the ropes so that they wouldn't tangle too much and placed all the utensils back into the box.

Chara: Well, this was fun, don't you two think? she asked Azzy and MK with a big smile on her face.

Azzy and MK: Yeah, it was, but you tickled us a little bit too long to be honest. Just look at the clock! It's already 7:45 PM!

Chara: Oh... Oh my god, sorry guys! I didn't mean to overdo it! I've been tickling you for one and a half hour! she started apologising frantically, going a little red in the face

[illegible]

Azzy: Coochie coochie coo! he teased while tickling Chara Don't worry, we'll give you a break soon!

MK: Yeah, you really seem to be going bonkers there, Chara! he added, changing his technique, now using two wide paintbrushes to tickle her feet.

It didn't help that Azzy's fur tickled like crazy on its own, wherever he was to tickle her, and that MK's scaly tail was also a very effective tickle weapon on its own. The boys tickled her like this for five minutes nonstop, and when they finished, they gave Chara a break equal to the time they spent on tickling her.

Azzy: Okay, it's break time! he said after five minutes since they started

Chara: Her laughter died down progressively she giggled from phantom tickles still lingering on her feet, sides and belly.

HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHha
hahahahahahahahahahahahaha!!! Thihihihihihihis wahahahahahahahahas wihihihihihihihihihihihihihihihild!!

MK: Well, that is one crazy way to start a tickle torture. Are you alright? I mean, you've been laughing very heavily and not really moving at all! he asked her, having noticed the girl's paralysis.

Azzy: Oh, yeah, I almost haven't noticed! You were incredibly still when we were tickling you. he added, cocking his head to the side in innocent curiosity

Chara: That was the weirdest thing to happen to me, to be honest. I guess I went into some kind of paralysis from all of the CRAZY tickling my nerves experienced. But I'm not sure. We'll need to ask Alphys or Gaster sometime, maybe they'll know. she explained, just as curious as to what happened as the boys were. Either way, it makes it easier for you to tickle me and more fun for me to experience such a weird thing! I don't know why but I liked that feeling of helplessness.

MK and Azzy: Huh, quite a coincidence, we do like this feeling too! they exclaimed at the same time, surprising Chara by their statement.

The kids chilled for a bit of time, and when the five minute break was up, Chara surprised the boys as to what they should do.

Chara: So, what are you gonna do now? she asked, grinning widely at Azzy and MK.

Azzy: Oh, I was thinking of doing a double attack on your feet with MK.

MK: Yo! I totally thought of the same thing! chimed in the cheerful 7-year-old reptilian boy

Chara: Great, then you should tie my toes back! Like I did to you earlier! she said excitedly

The boys were stumped for a while, because they didn't want to overwhelm the girl, and yet she was asking them to have little mercy on her. Chara on the other hand was really hyped to be tickle tortured for some unknown reason. From what Asriel knew, she wasn't really like that, but it seems that she had opened up a lot since she fell into the underground, even though that was only a short while ago. Either way, the pace that the things were changing around was very fast, and that may have influenced the girl. Gaster was actually very surprised that the girl got comfortable so fast, as were the other Monsters. Putting that aside, the boys decided to do what Chara told them to do, and tied her toes back, completely immobilising her feet in the process.

Asriel seemed to be so focused on teasing Chara that he didn't really take note of what he said. Chara wanted to reply and quote him, but all that came out of her mouth was pure gibberish and frantic laughter. This went on for ten minutes before the boys decided to give their "victim" a break. When Chara calmed down she quoted Asriel and MK's teasing back to them, and the boys giggled and shivered a bit, because they imagined those words being said to them while they were being tickled. Chara seemed to have the time of her life being tickled like that, and now the boys noticed that she was more energetic than usual, well, at least Asriel did. By the end of the break, Chara

Chara: WHAT?! Bro, did you just say something or am I going crazy? she asked him, looking pretty confused

Azzy: No, I have not! The same thing happened to me, and I was about to answer your question!

MK: What in the name of Asgore are you two talking about? he asked, super confused

What ensued next was a series of tests, and it turned out that Chara and Azzy can hear their thoughts! The bond between them strengthened, just like Gaster assumed, and was developing very fast! The kids can only wonder what is happening, but they'll be sure to ask Gaster next time they meet up with him. They explained to MK what happened and the boy couldn't believe them at first, but then recalled something Alphys has told him.

MK: Wait guys, would it be okay if you showed me your SOULS? I just remembered something Aunt Alphys told me some time ago. he asked them

Asriel has summoned his and Chara's SOULS, and what they saw shocked all of them, for Asriel's SOUL now had a red-ish tinge to it, and Chara's had a white aura surrounding it. Asriel unsummoned their SOULS and MK was so shocked he sat down again.

MK: absolutely stumped Y-yo, do you even know what it is?

Azzy and Chara: No, we don't, but you seem to know!

MK: suddenly perks up and grins from ear to ear I know, but I won't tell you!

Asriel and Chara looked at each other, and Asriel untied Chara from the table, much to MK's horror. The siblings smiled at their friend and started slowly approaching him.

MK: Um, guys? What's with that weird s-smile of yours? And why h-ha-have you untied Chara, Az? We were supposed to be tickling her b-back! he started asking questions, getting more and more nervous by the second.

Chara: Oh, that can wait, and I'll let you finish having your fun when we're done with getting the information we want from YOU! she shouted out at him and shot towards him, grabbing him by his waist.

Azzy: Oh, we certainly are! he added, seizing his friend's legs.

The siblings now picked MK up off the ground and restrained him on the table Chara laid on just a minute ago! It seems that the kids really want to know what is happening with them, and they have the source of information right under their nose, but the cheeky and playful yellow lizard boy seems unwilling to give them any word about it! But that's going to hopefully change in a couple of minutes, thanks to the ticklish persuasion they're going to use on him!

MK: starts tittering nervously Guhuhuys, pleahahase, dohon't tihihickle meeheehee!

Azzy: We won't if you tell us what's going on with our SOULS. he told his buddy gently whispering the words into his ear, which sent shivers down the reptilian boy's spine

MK: trembles lightly from the shivers Yo, Az, don't do that! It's making me really uncomfortable!

Chara: Oh, then we'll make you VERY comfortable with tickles instead! she said cheerfully and started ticklishly dancing her fingers all around the boy's upper body

The light sensations made the boy squirm in his restraints and start laughing lightly, before Chara decided to really get him going by digging into the boy's hips with all ten of her fingers and blowing constant raspberries over his navel. That really got him going good, but it was nothing compared to what came out of the 7-year-old's mouth when Asriel started tickling his feet! The boy lost it at this point and threw his head back, laughing very heavily, almost nonstop. This went on for approximately 5 minutes before the siblings stopped and let MK catch his breath. Even though the thorough tickling he endured just now, he still denied telling his friends what was going on. Chara and Azzy decided to wrap things up as fast as possible, because Chara wanted to have her own tickle session finished, so the siblings decided to up the ante on the poor MK, and started tickling him with numerous utensils after only a minute-long break. Chara had two soft scrub brushes dancing over MK's hips and sides, which in on itself would've made him jump out of his skin, but she also started nibbling lightly on his belly and ribs; Asriel on the other hand went for "the ultimate MK tickling technique" the boy told Chara about earlier, and started nibbling the boy's feet, starting with his right and ending on his left, all the while using a brush to tickle the foot that wasn't being nibbled. These two attacks combined made MK's laughter jump to such a pitch, that Chara and Asriel had hard time enduring it through the torture. This went for roughly 9 minutes, and the kids stopped just as MK totally ran out of breath.

Chara: untying MK Okay, you little yellow mush of adorableness, will you please tell us what's up with our souls, so that you and Azzy can finish getting me back? she asked the absolutely obliterated boy as he caught his breath.

It took MK a minute and a half to recover enough so he could explain what he thinks might be happening to the siblings.

MK: calmed down Okay, so aunt Alphys has told me one day that there's this ultra rare type of bond that can form between humans and monsters, that only happens when the two people are really meant to be together. But the factor that's making this bond so rare is that both the Human and the Monster have to have magical abilities. When the bond is formed, it's indestructible, even after one part's death. There also seems to be a bridge of magic, and some of Monster magic is being exchanged with Human SOUL's magic and vice versa. That might be why Az's SOUL has a red tinge to it and that your SOUL has this weird aura, Chara.

At first the siblings couldn't understand the logic of this unusual phenomenon, but eventually this all made sense, and now they knew why Chara and Asriel could hear each other's thoughts. But what they didn't know was that this bond was just beginning to form between them, and it's not at its full potential.

All of this took roughly 20 minutes, and Chara laid on the table again and let Azzy restrain her. The kids abandoned the idea of competition by now, and MK wanted to "get back" at Chara for helping Azzy tickle him, and so he did with the help of Asriel. Now he wouldn't normally do this, but he decided to see if the nibbling technique would be effective on the now helpless girl, but before the boys did anything, they decided to ask Chara whether she was comfortable with them doing so.

MK: Umm... Chara? Would it be okay if I were to use nibbling on you? he asked her, blushing lightly

Azzy: Yeah, we'd like to see if it's effective on you too, but we'd just like to be sure you're comfortable with that since... well... you're a girl, I guess? he added, also blushing lightly

The boys themselves now felt awkwardly weird for asking Chara about this, hence the blush, and the girl giggled a little at seeing that.

Chara: Aaaaaw! That's so sweet and considerate of you, you two adorable marshmallows! she replied, making them blush even more at her remark And of course, you can! I was actually going to ask you to try it out, because I'm curious too!

The boys looked at each other and absolutely ginormous grins made their appearances known on their faces, because Chara giggled at them again. This time around Asriel took place at Chara's feet and MK took place at her upper body. The girl started tittering nervously, and squeaked a bit when Asriel tied her toes back again. When the precious goat-boy was finished, he immediately started zerberthing Chara's soles, starting at her heels and ending right underneath her toes. This made the girl shriek with very intense, yet at the same time joyful laughter.

Chara:

[illegible]

Azzy: Well, well, well, seems like that's very effective! I wonder what will happen when I start doing this! he said teasingly as he started nibbling lightly with his lips at his sister's balls of the feet and arches.

[illegible]

Azzy: Wowza! You're laughing almost as hard as MK would! and that's only from one foot, too! Yo, MK come here and tickle her other foot like that! he said, inviting his friend to join him at tormenting his sister's helpless feet

MK: Wouldn't that push her too much? You just said that all of this was just from tickling one of her fe- he wondered aloud, getting cut off by Chara.

Chara: cuts into MK's statement at the short break Asriel gave her Gohoho ahehehehehehead MK! Heeheeheehee!! It feeheeheeheels weheheheheheheird, buhuhuhut I lihihihihihike ihihihihihihihihi! she giggled out, encouraging the young reptilian boy to join Asriel at her feet

MK beamed at her, quickly nuzzled her cheek and made his way down to her feet, where he and Asriel got to work on nibbling and blowing raspberries on the very ticklish, helpless feet right in front of them, making Chara laugh so loud that her laughter could have probably been heard in the main area of the playhouse! And sure enough it has been heard by a certain someone that happened to be checking on the kids. The mysterious person made his way into the room without being noticed and Azzy and MK: Oh god, Chara are you alright? they asked her, very concerned We're sorry, we've lost ourselves there, we didn't mean to overdo it! If you want us to, we can-

???: I must admit you have a pretty impressive endurance, Chara! And such kindness and understanding of Asriel and MK's immersion, you really are one heck of a special human! said the mysterious person out from one of the dark corners of the room But don't you think that such "overdoing" things should be punished, so that it happens less in future times? he asked

Azzy and MK: Sans! the boys shouted excitedly, glomping the skeleton in hugs and nuzzles, to which his permanent smile widened.

Chara: You know what? I think you're right! They deserve some punishment for pushing me to my abSOLEute limits! she said, making a pun in the process, making everyone laugh

With that said, the boys giggled nervously, but decided to take the punishment. Sans and Asriel proceeded with releasing Chara, but Asriel decided to tease his sister a bit.

Chara: starts laughing quite heavily BWAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!!!!
AHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAZZIEHEEHEEHEEHEEHEEHEEHEE!!!
WHAT
AHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHARE
YOUHUHUHUHUHUHUHUHUHUHUHUHHUHUHUHUHU DOOHOHOHOHOHOHOHOING?!!!! she laughed through her laughter

Azzy: Well, I'm trying to untie your toes, you know? Sans, come help me with her other foot, the knots tightened themselves a bit too much, it will take some time to work them out. he said to the skeleton while trying to "untie" the toe restrains.

Chara: YOHOHOHOHOHOHOHOHOHOHOHOHOHOHOHOHO
BEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHETTEHEHEHEHEHEHEHER HURRY!!!
HEEHEEHEEHEEHEEHEEHEEHEEHEEHEEHEEHEEHEEHEE!!!!
IHIIHIIHIIHIIHIIHIIHIIHIIHIIHIIHIIHIIHIIHIIHIIHIKLEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHESES
LIHIIHIIHIIHIIHIIHIIHIIHIKE MAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAD!!!! she hurried them

Sans: taking place by her left foot Oh man, you weren't lying! Those are some quite tight knots!
he said, poking Azzy in the side, eliciting a giggle from him

The playful duo managed to “untie” her toes in about 3 minutes, and then released her ankles and wrists, the whole operation taking 5 minutes in total. Chara knew that the two were just teasing her, and so once she got released, she tackled Asriel down to the ground, sitting on his shins.

Azzy: Chara?! What are you doEEEEEEEEEEHEEHEEHEEHEEHEEHEENG?!!!
BAAAAAAAAAAAAAH!!!! NOHOHOHOHOHOHOHOHOHOHOHOHOT
THEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHEHERE!!! he started laughing hysterically

Chara: Oh, I know darn too well that you two were teasing me for this whole time, and now I'll get my payback for it, and THEN I'll punish you for what you did earlier! she said, smiling sinisterly at Azzy and grabbing a scrub brush and scrubbing the balls of his feet and underneath of his toes for three minutes

[illegible]

-Literally 3 minutes later-

Chara: Okay, that'd be about the time you did the same to me. she said, stopping her torture of Azzy's toes.

Sans: Hehehe, you got yourself into this, 'lil Prince! he said, poking his belly button a few times, to which the cute 'kid' swatted his hand away, giggling

MK: So, how's the punishment going to work when there's two of us and only one table? he asked curiously

Sans: Oh, don't you worry about that! he said and reached under the table-stocks, and there was a loud "click" and "clank" and the table started to extend, becoming able to suit 2 people at the same time.

The kids looked at the stocks curiously and nervously, wondering what they didn't know about this place yet. But what currently took over their minds was why would the stocks need such extending. Sans seemed to notice their confusion and explained that someday Chara and Asriel may earn the honor to both be tickled at the same time, which was a cryptic message saying that if the kids were to do something naughty enough, they may receive adequate punishment, but he wasn't going to tell them that! Either way, MK and Azzy laid down and let Chara and Sans restrain them to be "punished".

Chara: Okay, so I think I'll take MK on first and you may warm Asriel up, Sans. she said to the skeleton, smiling widely.

Sans: Sure thing, kid, I'll leave his best spots and techniques for you! So warmup it is, boys? he asked the restrained duo MK and Azzy: nervously W-we guess it is? they said and swallowed nervously.

With that said, Chara started very lightly gliding her fingers all over MK's belly, sides and hips, making the boy laugh and squirm mightily. Sans started zapping Asriel's sides, one at a time, and the boy started dancing in his restrains, laughing preciously and literally jamming his sides into one hand of Sans' or another. This went on for a little while, and after about five minutes the real punishment started to happen on MK's feet, for Chara started nibbling on them again. The poor, little yellow lizard monster threw his head back and started laughing and shrieking like it was the end of the world. Asriel on the other hand was receiving a lighter treatment, but still one that made him bleat, squeak, shriek and laugh his adorable little head off, for Sans was now monster-clawing (quite literally xD) on his belly with one hand, and with his other hand he played with his feet, randomly scribbling over the right or the left foot, focusing on his arches and toes most of the time. MK got to the breaking point in about five and a half minutes, and so Chara and Sans decided to swap ticklees, and Sans went easy on MK, but still hard enough to keep the boy laughing preciously. Chara on the other hand dove right in and started nibbling on Azzy's ribs and armpits, blowing constant raspberries, getting the boy to literally explode with what was probably the heaviest laughter she had heard from him. She also added to her brother's torment, throwing side and belly tickles into the mix. What ensued for the next six or so minutes was a cacophony of precious, hysterically maniacal laughter from the fluffy goat-boy, and Chara was relentless too, stopping only at the point where Asriel's laughter went completely silent. The boys were left to themselves for a while in order for them to catch breath and rest for a bit, and so they did, to the point that they fell asleep, still bound to the stocks. Chara and Sans untied the boys and let them be, and Sans placed Chara into his lap, gently caressing her head.

Sans: So, how was your playtime before I arrived? He asked, genuinely curious about what the kids did before he arrived Chara: So what happened is that the doors to this room were opened when I woke up, and I brought the utensil box upstairs, bound the boys together while they still slept and tickled them awake at first, yawn, and then I tickled them senseless for about an hour and a half, which we only noticed once I finished tickling them at 7:45 PM. Then we went downstairs and into here, where they got me back, and we had some tickle fights between ourselves in between them tickling me if that makes any sense. yawn. And then you appeared and so we're here.

Sans: Hehehe, you seem like you're going to fall asleep at any point now, huh, you tickle bug? he asked, tickling her stomach and feet briefly

Chara: giggling from the playful skeleton's light tickles Heeheeheeheehee!!

Sahahahahahahahans!! Dohohohohohon't yohohohohou thihihihihihink I- heeheeheehee - hahahahahahave beeheeheeheen tihihihihihihicklehehehehed enohohohohohohough fohohohohohor thehehehe dahahahahahahay?!!

Sans: Haha, sorry, couldn't help hearing your precious giggles again. Is there anything interesting you've learned today? he snickered, stopping the tickling for good and returning back to caressing her head and back lightly.

Chara: calms down quickly and yawns again. Actually yes, MK told me and Azzy about what Alphys has told him about a bond that can form in between monsters and humans that is super ultra rare, well, after we tickled him senseless, that is.

Sans: his eye sockets widen. So you two know about that? I... - We thought you haven't noticed it yet!

Chara: So you knew? We noticed just today after me and Azzy noticed we could hear our thoughts, and after Azzy summoned our SOULS that we noticed he has a red tinge to his and that I have a wite yawn aura around mine. she explained, feeling very sleepy now and putting her head on Sans' chest, to which the skeleton smiled

Sans: I'd better get you three to beds before you completely- he started to say out loud before he noticed Chara had sunken her whole weight onto his upper body, now asleep as well, and he sighed Heh, guess you've really been tickled out, huh, little ones? he asked in a whisper, tickling Chara's foot lightly, and seeing the girl giggle lightly and smile in her sleep.

He carried Chara upstairs first and tucked her in, then did the same to the boys, but not before tickling their feet and bellies very lightly and seeing them giggle and smile in their peaceful slumber too. The tucked the children in, giving every one of them a peck on the forehead, and just as he was about to leave them be, he heard Chara say quietly through her sleep "thank you, Uncle Sans", and then the kids shifting into a triple hug, and in this position they continued their voyage through their dreams. He checked his watch and noticed that it was nearing 9 PM, which was pretty late for the kids, and so he teleported out of their "hideout" to the lab, to tell Gaster about the development of Asriel and Chara's bond.

The kids slept, snuggled to each other, absolutely unaware of the grim future that awaits the whole Underground.
