

I was playing Sonic the hedgehog one day when a pop up appeared on my computer. I clicked it out of curiosity. "Let's see where it goes..." I say. When I clicked it the computer zaps me and knocks me out of my chair. "YEOW! What the hell?!" I said but then my body started to change. My body turns into a slim anthropomorphic hedgehog with blue fur that covers most of my body & peach skin covers my arms, muzzle, the insides of my ears and my front torso. I have small triangular ears on top of my head. Then six long quills grow on the back of my head and two spines grow from my back behind & shoulders. Finally my eyes extend and connect and round & I grow a short tail. "W-Whoa! I'm Sonic!" I said. But then...I began to change again. "W-Wait. Why is my hand red?" I ask now scared. Red clawed hands now replace my hands along with four fingers. My arms start to turn black and thin. My legs turn red and thin with my shoes becoming red shoes with black bands and my tail becomes a swirling tail. "WHAT'S HAPPENING TO ME?!" I shout now scared. My ears turn completely black and my blue fur turns red. My muzzle turns black and elongates into a permanent smile with small sharp red teeth. "W-Wait. Am I becoming Fatal Error? GASP! My voice." I said. My voice sounds more digital and glitchy as I now talk like Fatal. My belly turns black and I feel my neck stretch and become longer & separating my head from my body some. A glowing red eye appears in my black belly and I just freak out over this. "AHHH! What's happening?! Ugggh...My chest..." I grabbed my chest and moan in pain and suddenly I grow a extra pair of arms that look like my arms. "AHHHHG! Help meeee!" I scream. Then my surroundings start to change. I see myself in Fatal Errors world in his corrupt Sonic Universe...But this is my world right? "Uggh my head...So much malware. I need to delete some stuff." I say deleting pointless data I don't need anymore unknowingly erasing my old identity. I regained my memories as Fatal Error. About my creation, my creator who I oh so despise, my plans and everything about myself. "So many worlds...so many possibilities...my army will grow...this puppet show will never end! I...am...FATAL ERROR! And...YOUR...CODE...IS...MINE! HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!" I say laughing like a maniac at the end. I become more malicious & the textbook definition of a megalomaniac. Wanting not only to become powerful but maybe...even a god. I venture out to complete my goal. To become more powerful than Fatal Prime. My plan is Codename: EMPEROR.
