

"You have to make a promise to me!"

Amelia sniffles and wipes away her tears. Kailrun is the first time in her life that Amelia has pretended to look so pretty.

"The sun is setting, and a new sun is rising. And, today is the beginning of the glorious day."

Kailrun holds Amelia's hand tightly and observes the rising sun.

"First of all, shall we wake up Cure?"

Cure, who had fainted, recovers her energy and wakes up. Looking at Kailrun, who is looking at him with a smile, Cure realizes that the days of heroes are completely over. Kailrun smiles at Cure, who is trembling with fear and despair.

"Don't worry, I won't kill you." The ability to recover body and mind was excellent. We need someone like you, Sure. You were just walking on a path that wasn't on the milestone."

"Cure, do you want to go back to the world of nothing with those two bodies?" Or will you be a survivor who will testify to the new world?"

Cure thinks it's too scary to die from that huge dragon. She chooses to keep her life alive.

"I'll follow the orders of a new god."

Cure shows a complex and subtle feeling of shame and relief for the two hero colleagues who sacrificed for him. Then she sees Brainfog next to her.

"Brainfog? Why are you here..."

"Don't speak informally." You were a senior in the hero world, but I'm the big shot here. Got it? A rookie?

"Okay, Brainfog..."

"As expected, our Cure is nice and quick-witted. I'll be good to you from now on, okay?"

"Okay."

Cure has a deep face and can't say anything.

"Let's start right away".

Brainfog starts hypnosis as always. Cure thinks she should forget all her memories of the hero and obey Kailrun, who presented her with a new life.

"I'll obey you, Kailrun."

"Welcome to our army, Cure."

"Thank you."

Now that the days of heroes are over, Kailrun thinks he should make the final preparation process to become the emperor.

"What did you ride here?" Brainfog?"

"I came here by motorcycle, master."

"Where's the motorcycle?"

"I hid it in the sand." To prevent them from running away."

Brainfog tries to find his motorcycle hidden in the sand.

"Never mind. I'll buy you a new motorcycle."

"Really? Thank you." Master. Do I have to call a car to do that?

"I don't need it."

Kailrun's shoulders begin to sprout again. Kailrun's body becomes huge.

"Hurry up and ride it, everyone."

Kailrun starts flying in the sky with Cure and Brainfog on his back.

"Hey, it's been a while since I've flown in the sky like this."

"The air in the sky is so nice."

"Why couldn't you spread your wings?"

"I shouldn't have been caught being a dragon. Because the world has rejected dragons."

"I see..."

"However, it doesn't matter now. If we dominate the world, I will fly freely in the sky. How frustrating it is to ride a car or an expensive plane."

Cailoon sighs.

"I'll show you something fun".

Kailrun travels in the sky and shows various acrobatic flights. Brainfog is so happy at this moment. They fly in the sky at dawn and arrive at Kailrun's house.
