

"Hooray for Kailrun!"

Whenever Kailrun walked through the street, people continued to praise Kailrun. And, finally, the reaction that Kailrun wants begins to come out.

"Kailrun, please be emperor and rule us."

"What are you talking about, everyone?"

"Kailrun, be the emperor and rule over us."

Kailrun refused about three times, accepted the offer, and set the date for the ceremony, the moment he dreamed of.

Seeing society changing smoothly as he planned, Kailrun enters his office.

"I was really tired today!"

In principle, Kailrun made it a rule to stay in his accommodation at night, even if he moved the space he worked during the day. Because there were so many secrets hidden in blood in his quarters, Kailrun couldn't move his quarters. Instead, Kailrun built a new building to expand the living space of his security unit, which suffered in a narrow area.

"Thank you, Kailrun."

"It's because the entire unit trusted me and suffered. Let's continue to take the lead in protecting the world we have achieved like an iron wall, okay?"

"Okay."

"Okay, then disband."

Kailrun smiles as he thinks of one of his treasures, the Villain unit. He seems to be strangely hot because he had a very passionate day. And, today, he had something to say to another treasure of his own. Just in time, the treasure was walking to itself.

"Master, did you call me..."

Villain name Brainfog, Amelia can't speak after seeing Kailrun. Amelia witnesses Kailrun untying his shirt. As the buttons loosen one by one, Kailrun's huge chest muscles and abs begin to appear. Sweat is flowing through his whole body, and the light is reflected on Kailrun's body, so it is visible. Amelia swallows her saliva, feeling the desire to be hugged by his huge muscles.

"You can hug me."

"Master?"

"You can hug me."

Amelia is hugged between his chest when his owner's permission is granted. Kailrun's body, which is harder than any other substance in the world, welcomes her. His hot body makes Amelia feel very comfortable. She strokes Kailrun's rock-like body. Kailrun, strong enough to think that nothing could stop him, was a chocolate-soft man for Amelia.

"Oh, I love it!"

Kailrun takes off his pants. Amelia slowly pats Kailrun's dick with her hand, which seems to protrude at her.

"Isn't it too fast, Amelia?"

"You like it, don't you?"

Kailrun, who is spending the night with Amelia after a long time, cannot stand his excitement. His triangular underwear, which had been stretched tightly, eventually ripped.

"It ripped again." Well, it doesn't matter because I can ask my men to make it again."

Kailrun's dick becomes the size of a huge bat. She climbs onto Kailrun's testicles and her face pierces through Kailrun's chest. Then, two diamond rings are found in Kailrun's chest.

"What's this?"

"Oh, you're so good at this".

"Why are you hiding your ring in your heart?"

"This is for you".

Considering her habit of rubbing her cheek in his chest, Kailrun hid a proposal ring in his chest. Amelia's cheeks turn red, embarrassed by the unexpected situation.

"Amelia, you must be surprised".

"Yes, I was flustered."

"Amelia, please be with me for the rest of your life."

"Master..."

"Now you don't have to call me master. I liked you so much from the moment I first saw you, but you were the spy of the heroes, so I needed some time to check if your heart was with me. Is she pretending to like me to survive, or is she really in love with me? That's why I maintained the mainstream relationship."
