Day 1:

The Sheriff of Nottingham gave Rouge some yellow gum. She inflated to a safe level, making hard to reach areas easy.

Kamui inflated a red signal balloon. This means the area is dangerous.

Belladonna was going to use Lipomancy to fatten up Meow, but accidentally fatten herself into a blob.

Wile E Coyote was trying to inflate a signal balloon, but somehow managed to inflate himself like one instead... again.

Wolf, Leon, and Toy Chica were hanging out, when suddenly, Leon grabbed Wolf and Toy Chica and started to swell up. He was a Glutton's Sosia set up by Freya. He bursted, then the 2 started fattening up at an uncontrollable rate.

In the middle of a scuffle, Kass managed to shove a tire into Berrus's mouth. He escaped from the ballooning assailant.

Mea's squad, consisting of Tigerwolf and Lucario, went out of bounds and were gaining weight exponentially. Mea managed to get back, but her squad wasn't so fortunate.

Don Karnage thought he was with Behemoth but it was a Gluttony Sosia set up by Opera. It started to swell up, but Don Karnage managed to destroy it in time. The real Behemoth shortly arrived.

Leomon did a clean sweep around a mall restaurant. Who knew blended drinks could yield... interesting effects.

Kazooie slashed Asgore with a green Injector. He slightly inflated, and Kazooie dashed off.

Legosi tailors his clothes.

Roadhog's belly groaned right before puffing up. Thankfully, it stopped there.

Bea's clothes were too torn for comfort, so she had to resort to a mawashi. Hopefully she'll find a replacement soon.

Zorori found and put on a HETS (High Elastic Tactical Suit). It fit his ample body perfectly, like it was designed to stretch eternally. Unfortunately, it wasn't as stylish as his previous outfit.

Despite being very inflated, Haida still manages to stay grounded and mobile. He managed to deflate himself later.

Dedede just noticed that he was taller. Was it because of his noticeably larger belly?

Crash went on a diet, starting with deep-fried water. Why is that not surprising?

Madleomon remembered a way to inflate himself on command.

Tigress did a clean sweep around a manor. She was jumped by a robotic maid who immediately started stuffing her with an incredible amount of food. She eventually found a way to shut off the maid before she got too big.

Pike explored the suspiciously empty and clean sewers. After toying around with the bricks, he found an extremely out of place door. His belly gurgled stronger and stronger the closer he got. It simply wasn't going to be worth it.

Katswell subdued Panthy via sitting on her.

Tawanna is in denial about her size despite Yooka trying to help. She eventually realized how big she truly was.

Mangle got on a bike. It immediately broke.

Tailbain tried to haggle the merchant out of a Grand Desizer for free. They caught on and retaliated with a swarm of bloat darts. Thankfully, Tailbain had a desizer of his own on hand.

Chopper got on a bike. It immediately broke.

Morgana wanted Cassandra to pump him bigger, and bigger... and BIGGER!!! Now he no longer has a height disadvantage.

Chance tried to choke out Gloria, but then Chance suddenly inflated, releasing his grip. Gloria escaped.

Mao Mao ate some pink gum and swelled into a giant mobile ball. He used this temporary power up to roll over Sly and Werewolf Colleen.

Wilde was hit by an air shot by Roxy. He escaped and managed to remove the air shot to stop him from inflating any further.

Toriel fired the Rocket Blimper, but it malfunctioned and she ended up inflating herself instead.

Ricardo got stuck in a doorway.

Latch crafted some bloat darts.

Deeja and Seth did a clean sweep of a floor in an office building. They found a lathe machine, but it was broken.

Byakko found a way to inflate himself on command. He promptly showed this off to Cosma, who started to pick up on the technique. They immediately had an inflate off, but Cosma took it too far.

Night 1:

The Sheriff of Nottingham got stuck in a window sill.

Carmalita and Opera found a hot tub with air jets. They both sat on the jets, and relaxed with their inflating bellies, but they had to evacuate when Rouge and Wilde were trying to sneak up on them. The two took over the hot tube.

Zorori smashed Seth against a wall with his butt, leaving a large, butt looking imprint.

Penelope thought she was fighting Tawanna but it was her Palloncino Sosia. It started to inflate, but Penelope managed to destroy it in time.

Werewolf Colleen had a nightmare on Slime St. She woke up much fatter and covered in some strange substance.

Pike ate a pear. Suddenly, his belly and butt were huge.

Sajin rode around on a bike.

Don Karnage had a nightmare on Flesh St. He woke up much fatter and covered in... blood? It turned out to be some kind of sauce.

Chance rode around on a bike.

Lolbit took a night time drive on a moped. The darkness helped conceal the fact that she looked hilarious.

Wolfrun tried his best to stabilize his bouncy belly.

Cassandra consumes and/or steals Meow's supplies while he is asleep.

No need to stay quiet since they were both roasting the movie.

Krystal had a nightmare on Hydrogen St. She woke up to a sloshy belly.

Leon helped pump water out of Sly. That seemed very uncomfortable.
