The fourteen Sons of Baal

Pilot: The Conception

During the Peace shared by Adam & Eve a High Ranking Demon observed them with envy his name was Baal and he started to crave the companionship of someone unlike himself so Baal snuck into the heavens and plucked an Angel of serenity and grace Baal spirited this Angel away to a place away from both God and Lucifer's prying eyes it was in this hideaway that Baal began to court this Angel with honesty and kindness

In time the Angel was swayed by Baal's kindness and in time the Angel became pregnant she bore fourteen

Sons of both Virtue and Sin and those sons were loved by both of their parents inheriting the best of both of their parents

But like all things it was not meant to last because both Angels and Demons discovered the location of this family and they were disgust by the progeny created from this union

The children who were in there preteens at the time were imprisoned within Mars's twin moons the more demonic offspring were sealed within Phobos while the more angelic were sealed within Deimos

The children were imprisoned for twelve long centuries until a trickster had freed them the Trickster led the children to a place beyond the sight of both Lucifer and God this place was known as the Outer Boundary a free space where these children could make of it

what they will and they were all unified in one goal to eviscerate the Kingdom's of both Heaven and Hell and rebuild them in there parents image

So they began to build a foundation within the Outer Boundary under the instruction of the Trickster who became a big Brother figure to the children it took time but soon the outer Boundary became a whole the Trickster soon taught the children one final skill

He taught them how to open and utilize the Power of The Universal Gateway and then he left the children so they could achieve their goals the Children were saddened by the loss of their brother but still they carried on

End of Pilot