

Hukeng's Super Exciting TOS

Preface

By further interacting with me for the purpose of requesting a service, you agree that you have fully read and understood the terms below and are legally permitted to request such a service. I shall not be responsible or liable for any legal repercussions, damages or financial losses incurred as a result of your interactions with me or my work.

Commission process

Commission-related correspondence should ideally take place via Discord. My username is Hukeng. Other means of communication may be used at the commissioner's express request.

Commissioners may provide me with reference images and/or a short, concise script detailing the nature and general structure of the artwork they would like to commission. Please note that I may take artistic liberties with parts of the project for which I have not received explicit instructions, so make sure to include any specific details you would like to see. Additionally, I would greatly appreciate it if references and scripts were delivered in file formats (eg. .docx) that can be opened offline.

Commissioners will receive work-in-progress such as sketches and line art over the course of the commission process, and will get the option to point out aspects they would like to see changed or redone. Please note that while such changes are included in the base price most of the time, I reserve the right to charge extra for extensive reworks, especially if they occur at a late stage of the commission process.

Other elements for which I reserve the right to add a surcharge beyond the standard item price include:

- 'Private' commissions which I am not allowed to post to any of my galleries
- Alternative versions or variants of a piece (different outfits, sfw/nsfw alts etc.)
- very intricate or unusual character or outfit designs
- Pieces that require substantial amounts of original character or creature design
- Pieces that require substantial amounts of original writing and/or typesetting besides the art
- Additional detailed props or backgrounds
- Anything else that may considerably increase the time and effort invested in a particular piece

Unless otherwise stated in written form and agreed upon by both me and the commissioner, I retain all rights to any content I create. This includes, but is not limited to, the right to reproduce, alter and build upon it, as well as its use for the purpose of self-advertisement and all forms of commercial use. A commissioner may not resell or commercially use commissioned artwork unless explicitly authorised to do so, but is free to repost and distribute it non-commercially as they see fit. In such cases, I would greatly appreciate being credited as the artist.

Wills and Won'ts

IMPORTANT: If you are unsure whether your commission is something I would be willing to draw, do not hesitate to ask – The worst thing that can happen is for me to politely decline.

I WILL DRAW:

- Pretty much anything sfw – characters, comics, designs, concept art, game assets, landscapes, you name it! Just keep in mind that my experience with different kinds of subject matter may vary
- Tasteful nsfw, especially if it's cute and unusual – get weird!

I WON'T DRAW:

- Scat, urine or any other form of bodily waste
- Diapers and ABDL content
- Extreme gore or material featuring an unduly focus on violence, bloodshed and mutilation (candy gore and humorous/cartoonish content are accepted and welcome, though)
- Content obviously designed to attack, offend or belittle people or groups in a manner that crosses the boundaries of what can reasonably be considered satire (I leave it up to my own discretion to decide what this may or may not entail)
- Content that is illegal to create, distribute or own within the Federal Republic of Germany or the commissioner's country of residence
- Anything else I might decide to avoid
