

Getting Possessed By A Ghost

A tan fur young slim nerd and little bit goth female cat with black and purple short-hair name's Lily, bought a new mansion for herself to live, although she heard some rumors and theories from the locals about the mansion, that it his haunted and a there's a creepy ghost wandern in it. But Lily didn't care and tell herself.

Lily: Yeah, these people are so worried just because I'm living inside a so called "haunted mansion" because of a ghost. There's no such a thing of ghost, plus why would someone offer this mansion a sale to the public where people say it's haunted? It doesn't make a sense.

Lily put a challange to herself to stay and live in the mansion for one week if she doesn't see a ghost living in it. A week have passed and she did not see or heard anything weird.

Lily: It's been a week. No ghost, no creepy rumors. Nothing. In your face locals.

The next day, she's enjoying some music wearing her headset, then she heard some disturb sounds coming from the basement under floor.

Lily: Really, thoes things again? Damn it.

She puts her things in her bedroom, then she goes to the basement to find the source of the sound. It turns out some white ants eat some part of an old table, which causes the table gets broken apart.

Lily: I really need a way to get rid of them.

Lily was about to leave but then she sees an unknown door right next to her.

Lily: Hey, I don't recognize that door here.

Lily is curious about it and then she opened the door, only to find a long hall way to walk through, as walks she hears some noises, like something to pump.

Lily: You know, I take it back of my words about the locals. Maybe there's a dark secret here.

As Lily reaches the final room of it, she sees a ghost. Not just any ghost, a thick female ghost with muscular and sexy body, a long white hair, fang teeth in a black bikini outfit, with dark and black yellow eyes. Ghost flexing her muscles to look at them at show some poses.

Female Ghost: My, my...look at these muscles. I love them so much.

Lily is shocked and confused at the same moment at the ghost, then the female ghost notice someone is behind her and turn around with a smile.

Female Ghost: Oh, nice to see someone here. I suppose you're the new owner.

Lily: Uh...yeah...well...so...I'm just...gonna leave you be.

FemaleGhost: You're mine now.

Then the female ghost's tail turns into muscular thick legs, and suddenly she flies and sits on Lily's shoulders, and wraps her legs around Lily's neck.

Lily: Hey! What are you doing?!

Lily holds Ghost's knees and tries to break free of her grip but she couldn't.

Female Ghost: Now, now. We just about to start.

Lily: Huh-?!

Then suddenly Lily starts feeling something strange of herself, her left arm start crackingly shaking and suddenly her left arm grows into muscular biceps.

Lily: Wha-?!

Then her right arm starts growing muscles too.

Lily: What's happening to me?!

Female Ghost: When I sit on someone's back, the whole body will grow to muscles just like me, well not as big as me.

Lily's small chest grows into larger boobs, then her flat belly become six-pack abs.

Lily: Make it stop.

Female Ghost: No can do, we're not done yet.

Lily's legs grow not to make her taller, but also into muscular thick thighs and her butt, her back grows into muscles. Her glasses fall during the growing, her short hair grows longer, and then Lily's stop growing.

Female Ghost: Perfect.

Lily open her eyes, to see herself in a shocking way.

Lily: Oh my god! What have you done to me?!

Female Ghost: What? I gave you the perfect body. Now let's give it a test, shall we?

Lily's body start moving by itself, walking around.

Lily: Hey, I can't control of myself.

Female Ghost: Oh, I'm using it like a doll.

Lily: That's not fair.

Lily's body suddenly start flexing her body while the ghost is on her shoulders.

Female Ghost: Look at this magnificent body of yours, the upper, the lower, and the veins. Wow, you are very sexy girl.

Lily's body start doing some squats up and down.

Female Ghost: These legs of yours are so amazing.

Lily then starts feeling dizzy.

Lily: Hey...I think...I'm going to sleep.

Moments later, Lily's body stop moving.

Female Ghost: What's the matter?

She looks down at Lily is sleeping as Lily's body is stand still.

Female Ghost: I think it's getting late.

The ghost gets off of Lily's shoulders, and slowly Lily goes down to the floor to rest and continue sleeping. Then Lily's body turns back to normal body. The ghost picks her up and puts her in her bedroom.

Female Ghost: Sleep well, my newest friend.

The next morning, Lily wakes up.

Lily: Oh, I think it was a dream or something. Now where's my glasses...

???: Here you go.

Lily: Thanks.

Lily takes it and wear it, and suddenly she sees the one who gave it to her is non other than the ghost lady herself.

Female Ghost: Morning, ready for another round?

Lily: (Sighs) Here we go, again.

Eventually, they have become friends with each other, well at least how it goes both of them.
